

SET delists POLAR's securities from being listed securities and allows trading during January 17 - 27, 2025 by purchasing with Cash Balance Account

The Stock Exchange of Thailand (SET) delists securities of Polaris Capital Public Company Limited (POLAR) from being listed securities as the auditor issues disclaimer opinions on the financial statements for 3 consecutive years (the financial statements for the year ended 2017 – 2020) and the company is unable to repossess the qualifications in order to resume trading within specified deadline which causes the grounds for delisting according to clause 7 (6) (b) and 7 (14) of SET's regulation Re: Delisting of securities B.E. 2564 (2021).

SET will allow trading on POLAR's securities for 7 business days before the effective date of delisting, during January 17 - 27, 2025, under the following regulations and conditions;

1. POLAR's securities are required to purchase through cash balance account which means that the investors have to pay the full amount in cash prior to purchasing.
2. NC sign will be posted during such trading period in order to alert the investors to be careful in trading securities.
3. The Ceiling and Floor prices of POLAR's securities on the first trading day (January 17, 2025)^{1/} will not be specified.
4. POLAR's securities will be excluded from calculation of SET Index.

At the end of trading period, SET will delist the securities of POLAR from listed securities, effective from January 28, 2025 onwards.

SET recommends shareholders and investors to trade POLAR's securities with caution and carefully study information of the company such as financial positions, operating results, type of auditors' reports, major shareholders, board of directors, historical news as well as risks and other related factors. In addition, in order to provide service for the investors to access information, SET preliminary summarizes information of the latest financial statements together with type of auditor's report and the latest annual registration statements (Form 56-1 One Report) that the company disclosed via SET's disclosure system.
